JUSTUS COBB, Publisher,

By whom all kinds of Book and Job Printing will be done on favorable terms.

Letter of Newspapers.

L. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

If subscribers order the discontinuance of this paper, the publisher may continue to send them the same if they do not pay.

If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their paper from the places to which they are directed, the are held responsible for having settled their bills and ordered their papers discontinued.

If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are liable for the expense.

The publishers have decided that refusing to take a paper from the office, or removing and leaving it unclaimed for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

A Postmaster neglecting to inform a subscriber where his paper is not taken from the office, makes himself liable for his subscription price.
